« When men are experiencing a pedicure or a facial for the first time, they want it to be private and comfortable,” explains Donna Shayler, hairstylist and image consultant at Edmonton’s The Boardroom spa. “They may not feel relaxed in a unisex spa. We can offer them complete pampering and privacy here.”

Open for only three short months, located in the heart of downtown Edmonton and catering to the corporate male, The Boardroom has been a hit since the doors opened in May 2005. Co-owner Ed Kilbride felt compelled to open the new facility after experiencing a European
